

Research Workshop

Methodological and Research-Related Challenges and Strategies in Multilingual Research in Multicultural Settings

You are cordially invited to join our research workshops on issues related to working in different (multilingual) research contexts as (multilingual) researchers. We aim to tackle questions related to translation and related transcultural experiences, challenges and opportunities. Researchers and students across disciplines and all levels are welcome.

Organisers:
Michelle Proyer, Katharina Resch, Eva Kleinlein, Seyda Subasi Singh (University of Vienna), Simon Reisenbauer (Humboldt University Berlin), Robert Aust (Leipzig University), Imene Zoulikha Kassous (University of Glasgow), Run Tan (University of Konstanz)
